

UNIVERSITY OF GUYANA GREEN INSTITUTE

THE RESOURCE-BASED ECONOMY & ENVIRONMENT: COOPERATION & COORDINATION FOR GREEN GROWTH

Daily Lectures & Panel Discussions

July 23rd 2019—July 25th 2019

(9 am—12 noon and 1 pm—4 pm)

July 23, 2019

Political Party Coalitions & Ethnic Bipolar Structures: Trinidad & Tobago

RALPH PREMDAS (PhD)

Former Prof. of Public Policy, University of the West Indies

July 24, 2019

Economic Diversification in Natural Resource Rich Countries

JAY MANDLE (PhD)

W. Bradford Wiley Prof. of Economics Emeritus, Colgate University

July 25, 2019

More than Elections: Deepening the Culture of Democracy

JOAN MANDLE (PhD)

Executive Director, Democracy Matters

Venue:

School for Entrepreneurship & Business Innovation, Turkeyen Campus

Resource abundance does not itself imply growth and development; and much less does it imply green growth and sustainable development. The 2019 Green Economy Workshop examines mechanisms for expanding opportunities for everyone in society, despite the several challenges that will occur as Guyana embarks on a green economy path.